Bowen.

Most of the farmers throughout this section of Lincoln county are busy in the wheat harvest. The prospect for a good corn crop looks very favorable, as it now stands.

Boys, who are in the boys' corn growing contest look out for Master Willie Russell, who has one acre on the excellent farm of R. H. Crowe. We feel safe in saying there is not a better prospect in Lincoln county at present. The ground on which this acre of corn stands has been darkened like Egypt's soil under a swarm of "Pharaohs Locusts."

W. C. Wolford, who for the past three years has been in Norwood, has been visiting relatives in the West End, also called on his old friends, John F. Russell and Patrick McGirr.

Mrs. Frances Adkins, wife of William Adkins deceased, passed away at the home of her son, George Adkins, of Somerset, June 26, 1912, aged 61 years. Mrs. Adkins had worked some in her garden the evening before her death. It is supposed death resulted from heart failure. The remains were brought back to McCormack's church cemetery and there laid to rest. Her relatives and friends have our sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adkins, of Somerset, are visiting here now. They expect to return to their home in a few days.

R. H. Crowe sold 93 head of lambs recently, bringing in return about $500. Mr. Crowe has about the same number of lambs left to graze on his splendid blue grass farm, which stands foremost among the best farms in the state.

Willie and Robert Russell are breaking a beautiful Shetland pony for R. H. Crowe.

School begins here July 15th, with Mr. J. H. Wolford for our teacher again. We are expecting a splendid school this term.

Our Sunday school that is being held in the schoolhouse is progressing nicely with a good attendance.

His Landlady's Advice

Probably Saved His Life

I feel that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root saved my life. I inherited weak kidneys. The discharge was so frequent and painful that I would have to stay in bed to obtain temporary relief. I consulted good physicians but the results were disappointing. My landlady advised me to try Swamp-Root as the last resort, which I did and I was quickly relieved.

I continued taking Swamp-Root and my weight has increased fifty pounds. My health is of the best and I have told many others about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and have done a lot of good in this way. Your wonderful medicine is of great value to mankind.

Yours very truly, J. H. BRUXBY, Pawtucket, R. I. The above statement made before me I declare to be truthful in every detail. Thomas Marsden, Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure to mention the Stanford Interior Journal, Semi-Weekly.
